

Unique, highly valued hand-crafted products, guaranteed by the Republic of San Marino Designation of Origin and Typicality.

In 1995 the Republic of San Marino instated the Designation of Origin and Typicality to safeguard, upgrade and promote artistic and traditional production. Ceramics, copper works, wrought iron, glass and precious metals such as gold and silver, lace, embroidery, painting, wines and cakes are all protected by this designation mark.

Wines with "designation of origin" trademark
The 'Identificazione d'Origine' (designation of origin) trademark protects and promotes the wine-making industry of San Marino. It offers customers a reliable guarantee on the origin of the grapes used in wine-making and on the correctness of the agricultural practices and fermentation and maturation processes used in the production of San Marinense wines. It protects the final quality of finished products, aided by the constant and continuous vigilance of the authorities delegated to this responsibility by the legislation.
